

LATEST NEWS.

—Gold closed in New York yesterday at 148.
—Camp Nelson, Kentucky, is to be abandoned.
—The President did not pardon John Mitchell.
—The Kentucky Railroad Depot, at Lebanon, was burned yesterday.
—A Black Republican caucus is to be held at Washington on Saturday evening.
—The statement that another case of cholera had occurred in New York is denied.
—A fire in New York yesterday morning destroyed property valued at $200,000.
—Hon. Thomas Settle has been elected President of the North Carolina Senate.
—The steamship Albatross has arrived from Liverpool. Her news has been anticipated.
—Ford's Theater has been completely demolished, and is now ready for the reconstruction.
—The President has directed that no patents be granted to unpatriotic Rebels in the South.
—Chicago has appropriated $100,000 to clean the streets, in anticipation of the cholera.
—The parties of Judge Magrath and rebel Secretary Sedgwick came direct from the President's residence.
—The colored schools at Chattanooga have been closed to prevent the spread of small-pox.
—A famous Indian chief named Sag-gan-daw-daw died in Michigan last Sunday, aged 100 years.
—The Government has not detailed a vessel to assist in laying the cable at Boquer's Strait, as stated.
—The next Pennsylvania Democratic state convention will be held on the 5th of March, at Harrisburg.
—Ten thousand negroes are to be tried by court martial for engaging in the recent Jamaica rebellion.
—It is reported that a U. S. Paymaster has been murdered by Carthage's band, and $25,000 taken by him.
—It is stated that Hon. Schuyler Colfax is soon to be married to a daughter of Lieutenant Governor Brown.
—Hon. A. Harrington, Chancellor of the State of Delaware, died suddenly in Philadelphia, yesterday.
—Frauds have been discovered in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars.
—Mrs. Catharine Shafer committed suicide at Newport, Ky., on Sunday last by shooting herself with a gun.
—A National convention of wool-growers and manufacturers will meet at Syracuse, N. Y., on the 15th prox.
—Colonel Jordine, wounded in the New York riots, has been promoted to a Brevet Brigadier Generalship.
—From twelve to fifteen hundred men are to be discharged from the Charleston Navy Yard next Saturday.
—Governor Gray has appointed Gen. George F. Shipley to the judicial jurisdiction in the Supreme Court of Maine.
—Ex-Senator Gwin is still in close confinement at Fort Jackson. The story of his release was a fabrication.
—The question of the seizure of the French tobacco in Richmond is now under consideration by the Government.
—The office of W. T. Paton & Co., Patriot, Indiana, was blown open on Sunday night last, and robbed of $5,000.
—Three gambling hells have been broken up in St. Louis within the past few days, and $5,000 worth of tools destroyed.
—It is stated that the President has bestowed particular care on that portion of his message referring to "disunionists."
—A new Methodist Church (Rev. Mr. Booth's), New York, was blown down, early yesterday morning, during a gale.
—True bills for murder in the first degree have been found against Gonzales and Pelletier, the alleged murderers of the Cuban, Otero.
—In speaking of the death of Mr. John D. Smith yesterday, we should have said, old citizen of Tippecanoe county, instead of Madison.
—A young man and woman were burned to death last Thursday in Franklin county, Kansas. Their parents lately arrived there from Ohio.
—Some men worshippers in New York have raised $20,000 to pay off a mortgage on a house recently purchased by General Grant in Washington.
—The store of Messrs. J. Schuman & Co., Richmond, Ind., was entered the other night and robbed of $200 worth of cloths and clothing.
—The Internal Revenue Collector at Louisville has seized another tobacco manufacturer's stock and implements for alleged frauds.
—Frank Gurley, sentenced to be hung next Friday, has been respite until such time as further facts in his case can be submitted to President.
—A man whose name is supposed to be J. Wesscott, was run over by a horse car, near Jersey City, on Monday night, and literally torn to pieces.
—In a fight between two negroes named Brandy and Wilson, near Cincinnati, on Sunday night, the latter was killed, being shot through the head with a revolver.
—In the "Jerkwater" will be found particulars of another negro outrage in Georgia. No wonder the white men of the South stand in fear of negro insurrections this winter.
—A characteristic address from the black Republicans of Tennessee to their brethren of New York is sent by the advertising of the letter that it worth lumbering our columns with.
—The city authorities of Brooklyn have resolved to sell the City Park, the scene of the recent horrible murder of the Cuban, and increase the police force. "After the horse is stolen," etc.
—The Alabama Congressional Delegation is as follows: First District, C. C. Langford; Second, George M. Freeman; Third, C. A. Battle; Fourth, J. W. Taylor; Fifth, J. A. Shild; Sixth, Thomas J. Foster.
—Three persons were sentenced to death for murder at Pittsburgh on Saturday, viz: Marshall and Froke, who assassinated and robbed a driver, name unknown, on Boyd's Hill, Pittsburgh, some months since, and Mrs. Martha Grindler.
—The Postmaster General will recommend in his report that the advertising of the letter be left to the Postmaster of each city, who, in his discretion, may select any journal, instead of giving it to the one having the largest circulation.
—The track of the LaCrosse Rail Road was torn up and a bridge burned, eighteen miles from Milwaukee, on Saturday night. It is supposed to have been the work of farmers who overthrew their farms along the road to the amount of $100,000, which mortgages are being foreclosed. More trouble is anticipated.
—The Nova Scotia arrived at Portland yesterday bringing five days later news from Europe. The London papers are still discussing the Adams-Russell correspondence and the liberation of the Shenandoah's men. The Emperor of the French has released his army of 150,000 men, and has ordered the Emperor of Austria to send his army of 150,000 men to the aid of the Emperor of the French.
—It is pretty well understood that the Black Republicans of the U. S. Senate will endeavor to elect Hon. John J. Stockton, who was elected U. S. Senator from New Jersey last year by the Democrats, on technical grounds. This is what the negro-worshippers of New Jersey want. Gen. Kilpatrick is too young for the office, he was rewarded with the mission to Cuba. The other prominent candidate for Governor before the Republican convention which nominated Wood, Mr. A. C. Cattell, a Federal Land Leasing, wants it, and as he "rents his money" without effect in the recent campaign, the fact that he has been elected has not been a great success. He has not the ghost of a chance.

VOLUME.

—It has been determined by the Navy Department to discontinue the services of all the workmen employed in the Brooklyn Navy Yard who did not serve in the army or navy during the rebellion.
Synopsis of Legislative Proceedings.
In the Senate yesterday the President appointed Messrs. Hanna, French, Brady, Allison, Cullen, Bennett, Oyster, McClurg, Wright, Chapman and Brown, of Wells, Special Commissioners on the subject of State Taxation.
Mr. Yawler offered a resolution that the Senate (House concurring) will adjourn sine die on the 9th of December, at 12 M. The resolution was amended, "provided there is no further business," and then referred to the Committee on Finance.
The motion to lay the subject on the table, it is evident, is in favor of an early adjournment.
A bill to declare valid and effectual all proceedings had by and before the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, during October and November, 1865, was read, third time and passed—yeas 28, nays 1.
A number of House bills were read the first time, and passed to the second reading.
Governor Morton's message was taken up in parts and referred to appropriate committees.
The bill fixing the time for holding the Circuit Court in the several Judicial Districts, was passed without opposition.
A communication was received from the Acting Governor in relation to the terms on which Trippler Hospital was turned over to the State of Ohio.
A bill legalizing the acts of Notaries Public after the expiration of their commissions, was passed.
The bill (H. R. 42) to repeal the act to establish the Courts of Conciliation, etc., after a lengthy debate was passed yeas 28, nays 14.
On motion, the special order for two o'clock was postponed.
The balance special bill—was postponed and made the special order for ten o'clock this morning.
In the House yesterday, several petitions were presented and appropriately referred.
Majority and minority reports were submitted by members of the Committee on Judiciary in reference to the disposition of the amendment to the Constitution (H. R. 11).
A bill compelling railroads to furnish transportation for all live stock that may be offered, and requiring them to charge uniform rates therefor, was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.
A resolution instructing the Wardens of the State Prison to make a report concerning prisoners of crime was adopted.
Hon. S. C. Crane was granted permission to use the Hall next Friday evening, to deliver a lecture on "This Past Year and This East Country."
A bill amendatory of the Divorce Act was introduced.
An act fixing the per diem and mileage of members of the General Assembly, and the Clerks and Deputies thereof, was introduced.
The House concurred in the Senate resolution for a joint committee on the recommendation of the Acting Governor to purchase a building for offices.
A bill introduced and passed to a second reading, instructing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress to use their influence to secure the passage of a law by which the soldiers and sailors of the rebellion should be paid, and the rebellion should be placed on an equal footing as to pay and bounty, according to the length of time they have served.
The School Commissioner bill, (H. R. 87) after some debate, was indefinitely postponed.
The bill amending the fourth section of the Justice's act, so that in state prosecutions his warrant may be served in any portion of the State, was passed on the final reading.
The question of the night was not taken up, and the special order postponed until this evening at seven o'clock.
The bill concerning the creation of corporations for maintaining high schools, passed the final reading by yeas 34, nays 13, after which the House adjourned until this afternoon at two o'clock.
Disfranchisement of the Freedmen's Rights.
NEW YORK, November 28.—Early this morning a fire was discovered in the carpenter shop of Messrs. T. H. & Co., 101 Mercer street, and 101 Mercer street. The front and rear buildings were destroyed, and a vast amount of property, total loss over $200,000, in store for about $100,000. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a candle, and the property of Messrs. T. H. & Co. is insured by the New York Mutual Fire Insurance Co. The Grand Jury have found a bill of murder in the case of the fire, and the case will be tried at the New York Court to-morrow. Otero was arrested by the New York Court to-morrow. Otero was arrested by the New York Court to-morrow. Otero was arrested by the New York Court to-morrow.
The Commissioners of Health met this afternoon, and important communication, referring to the cholera epidemic, and the peculiarities of cholera, and the prospects of preventing its spread, were made. The Commissioners of Health met this afternoon, and important communication, referring to the cholera epidemic, and the peculiarities of cholera, and the prospects of preventing its spread, were made. The Commissioners of Health met this afternoon, and important communication, referring to the cholera epidemic, and the peculiarities of cholera, and the prospects of preventing its spread, were made.
The Recent Murder in Brooklyn.
NEW YORK, November 28.—The Common Council of Brooklyn last night passed a resolution for the immediate sale of the City Park, and also passed increasing the police force of that city.
The citizens of New York have nearly completed arrangements to pay off a mortgage of $100,000, on the house recently purchased by General Grant.
New Jersey politics have been considerably stirred up by the election of that State, and endeavor to unseat John J. Stockton, who was declared to be elected United States Senator from New Jersey last winter.
Seizure by the Internal Revenue Collector.
LOUISVILLE, November 28.—Last Saturday, the Collector of Internal Revenue seized upon the stock of a manufacturer of tobacco here for alleged frauds in relation to the duties on tobacco, and the stock and implements of another manufacturer were seized. The stock and implements of another manufacturer were seized. The stock and implements of another manufacturer were seized.
Cotton Raising in the South.
BOSTON, November 28.—The Boston Board of Trade has adopted a series of resolutions in relation to the cotton raising in the South, in which the Government is requested, within the sphere of its legitimate powers, to aid the cotton raisers in the South, and to aid the cotton raisers in the South, and to aid the cotton raisers in the South.
Death of the Chancellor of Delaware.
PHILADELPHIA, November 28.—Hon. Thos. Settle, a staunch Union man, and ex-Speaker of the State Senate today, both Houses organized and adjourned till tomorrow. Gov. Holden is improving, and is able to sit up in his room.
North Carolina Legislature.
RALEIGH, N. C., November 28.—Hon. Thos. Settle, a staunch Union man, and ex-Speaker of the State Senate today, both Houses organized and adjourned till tomorrow. Gov. Holden is improving, and is able to sit up in his room.
Death of the Chancellor of Delaware.
PHILADELPHIA, November 28.—Hon. Thos. Settle, a staunch Union man, and ex-Speaker of the State Senate today, both Houses organized and adjourned till tomorrow. Gov. Holden is improving, and is able to sit up in his room.
North Carolina Legislature.
RALEIGH, N. C., November 28.—Hon. Thos. Settle, a staunch Union man, and ex-Speaker of the State Senate today, both Houses organized and adjourned till tomorrow. Gov. Holden is improving, and is able to sit up in his room.
Death of the Chancellor of Delaware.
PHILADELPHIA, November 28.—Hon. Thos. Settle, a staunch Union man, and ex-Speaker of the State Senate today, both Houses organized and adjourned till tomorrow. Gov. Holden is improving, and is able to sit up in his room.
North Carolina Legislature.
RALEIGH, N. C., November 28.—Hon. Thos. Settle, a staunch Union man, and ex-Speaker of the State Senate today, both Houses organized and adjourned till tomorrow. Gov. Holden is improving, and is able to sit up in his room.

INDIANAPOLIS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 29, 1865.

TELEGRAPHIC.

NIGHT REPORT.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

The Arrest of the Head Center.

Adams-Russell Correspondence.

THE PIRATE SHENANDOAH.

EDUCATION OF THE FRENCH ARMY.

MAY IN THE SOUTH.

Frauds in Brooklyn Navy Yard.

WORKMEN TO BE DISCHARGED.

Rio Grande Difficulties.

Central Railroad Accident.

CHURCH BLOWN DOWN.

Death of Delaware's Chancellor.

NEW JERSEY POLITICS.

STOCKTON TO BE UNSEATED.

Another Negro Outrage.

FRAUDS AT LOUISVILLE.

RAILROAD DEPOT BURNED.

Frank Gurley Respected.

OTERO'S MURDERERS INDICTED.

N. CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

Organization of the House.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Later from Europe.

Arrival of the Steamship Scotia.

The Shenandoah's Men—The Arrest of the Pirate.

THE PIRATE SHENANDOAH.

EDUCATION OF THE FRENCH ARMY.

MAY IN THE SOUTH.

Frauds in Brooklyn Navy Yard.

WORKMEN TO BE DISCHARGED.

Rio Grande Difficulties.

Central Railroad Accident.

CHURCH BLOWN DOWN.

Death of Delaware's Chancellor.

NEW JERSEY POLITICS.

STOCKTON TO BE UNSEATED.

Another Negro Outrage.

FRAUDS AT LOUISVILLE.

RAILROAD DEPOT BURNED.

Frank Gurley Respected.

OTERO'S MURDERERS INDICTED.

N. CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

Organization of the House.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Later from Europe.

Arrival of the Steamship Scotia.

The Shenandoah's Men—The Arrest of the Pirate.

THE PIRATE SHENANDOAH.

EDUCATION OF THE FRENCH ARMY.

MAY IN THE SOUTH.

Frauds in Brooklyn Navy Yard.

WORKMEN TO BE DISCHARGED.

Rio Grande Difficulties.

Central Railroad Accident.

CHURCH BLOWN DOWN.

Death of Delaware's Chancellor.

NEW JERSEY POLITICS.

STOCKTON TO BE UNSEATED.

Another Negro Outrage.

FRAUDS AT LOUISVILLE.

RAILROAD DEPOT BURNED.

Frank Gurley Respected.

OTERO'S MURDERERS INDICTED.

N. CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

Organization of the House.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Later from Europe.

Arrival of the Steamship Scotia.

The Shenandoah's Men—The Arrest of the Pirate.

THE PIRATE SHENANDOAH.

EDUCATION OF THE FRENCH ARMY.

MAY IN THE SOUTH.

Frauds in Brooklyn Navy Yard.

WORKMEN TO BE DISCHARGED.

Rio Grande Difficulties.

Central Railroad Accident.

CHURCH BLOWN DOWN.

Death of Delaware's Chancellor.

NEW JERSEY POLITICS.

STOCKTON TO BE UNSEATED.

Another Negro Outrage.

FRAUDS AT LOUISVILLE.

RAILROAD DEPOT BURNED.

Frank Gurley Respected.

OTERO'S MURDERERS INDICTED.

N. CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

Organization of the House.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

From New York.

Workmen at Brooklyn Navy Yard to be Discharged.

Down-Front of the Navy Yard.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

Nothing Official from the Port.

</